

Ethical Steps for S.A.F.E. Hunters

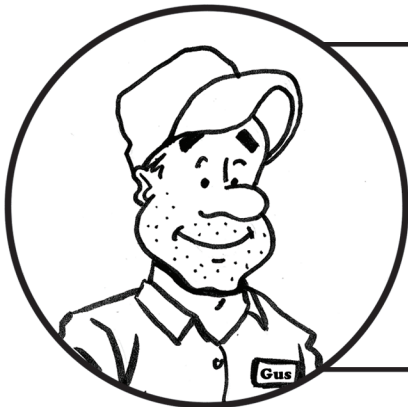

Conserve Natural Resources:

Join your local conservation club.
Join and support national conservation organizations such as Ducks Unlimited or Whitetails Unlimited.

Better Yourself:

Take a class or course to improve your hunting or shooting skills.
Practice out of season to ensure quick clean kills.
Follow the fair chase rules.

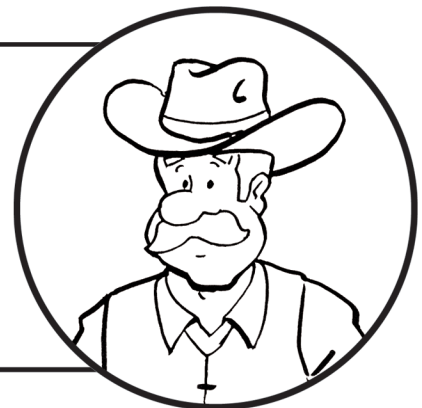

Don't waste meat from your kills:

Donate your meat to organizations like Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry.
Offer to share your meat with Landowners and neighbors.

Share your knowledge with others:

Become a certified instructor through a national organization such as the NRA or 4H program
Find a younger hunter that you can mentor.
Share this book and others like it.

Remember.
Being a safe hunter is a life-long process.
