Firearms create controlled explosions to shoot bullets.

When shot, firearms expell sparks, powder, smoke, and sometimes debris.

Even the casing from semi-automatic weapons can fly out of control.

Always wear eye protection when shooting.